Girl Scouts have it handled!

Starting kindergarten is a big step, and you obviously want your girl to feel as comfortable and confident as possible from day one. Being a Girl Scout will help her shine as she makes new friends, meets new teachers, and tests out new ideas. Our girl-centered kindergarten readiness series is free and open to any girl entering kindergarten this fall.

This is something you do with your Girl Scout. Parents/caregivers must attend with their girl to share the fun and learn how to keep the troop going all year long.
