

First Six Meetings: Girl Scout Brownies

A step-by-step guide for the first six meetings of your Brownie Troop

Getting Started

Objective:

The goal of your first six Brownie meetings is to renew old friendships and to forge new ones as returning girls and adults welcome new members. The troop will discover their Journey as they are introduced to Girl Scout Brownie Leadership Journeys. This will help them choose one to work on as a team. The girls will also plan their investiture and rededication ceremony.

Introduction:

Included in this packet are basic outlines for your first six Girl Scout Brownie meetings. They are designed to help you get started, and can be changed or modified to fit the needs and the interests of the girls in the troop.

Resources:

Suggested items include but are not limited to:

- Brownie Quest Journey Adult How to Guide (optional)
- Brownie Girls' Guide to Girl Scouting
- Volunteer Essentials
- The girls: keep track of comments and suggestions from the girls throughout the meetings
- Your ideas: don't underestimate yourself
- The other adults in your troop: tap into this group as often as possible
- <http://forgirls.girlscouts.org/> : This "For Girls" section is loaded with ideas designed just for Brownies

Each Meeting Consists of:

1. Start-Up Activity
2. Opening
3. Business
4. Activities
5. Snack time (optional but recommended)
6. Clean-up/Kapers
7. Closing

First Meeting

Pre-Meeting Activity:

Materials:

- Construction paper markers/colored pencils/crayons, hole puncher, yarn or string, scissors ”

Instructions:

- As the girls arrive give them each the required materials
- Instruct them to cut out the trefoil and punch holes at the designated spots
- Attach the yarn to make a necklace
- Instruct the girls to write the Girl Scout Promise on one side (have an example handy to help them remember the words)
- Instruct the girls to write their name on the other side and to then wear their creation

Opening:

Introductions :

Play a get-acquainted game, such as “Going on a Trip,” where the girls sit in a circle and pick items to take on a trip that start with the first letter of their first name (such as, “I’m Sabrina, and I’m going to bring a suitcase,” or “I’m Claire, and I’m going to bring a CD).

Then, have the girls play “Human Knot.” Have the girls form a close circle, with one girl standing out of the circle. This girl is the “doctor.” Have the girls grab hands with Scouts on the other side of the circle, and twist and turn so they form a human knot. Then the “doctor” comes back and guides them to untangle the circle without breaking hands. This game can be played over and over again if the girls like it

Quiet Sign:

- Introduce the quiet sign to the group: raised hand with all five fingers referring to the law “ to be courteous”
- Explain that when they see the leader raise their hand in the quiet they should raise there hands as well, and listen for instructions.

How to open Troop Meetings

This is the first decision your troop will make for the year. They could start with a traditional Flag Ceremony and recite the Girl Scout Promise. Or a few returning members could lead the group in a favorite opening activity from previous years. They could also, do something completely new and/or different. It’s up to the girls.

First Meeting

Troop Business:

- Have the girls sit in a circle and as a group and create the rules that are to be followed during the meeting time. Materials: Large sheet of paper and markers. Instructions: By raising their hands, ask the girls what rules they should follow at a meeting. You may need to coach them with some of them such as: no running inside the building (if you meet inside), not interrupting leaders or other scouts etc. Once the girls and you feel you have a good list have each girl and adult sign it. This holds them accountable for their actions. Try having a place to hang this up at each meeting that way you can refer back to it if necessary. Also, discuss what happens (consequences) if the girls do not follow these rules.
- Discuss the purpose of registering and the fee, make sure all girls return registrations by the next meeting. Also discuss the purpose of Girl Scout uniforms [Brownie Handbook Page 26-27], and what it means to be a Brownie Girl Scout [Brownie Handbook Page 17]. Discuss as a group what uniform pieces you would like the girls to have.
- Plan to make the Kaper Chart [Kaper Chart Resource Included] at the next meeting. Brainstorm some tasks that could go on it, such as setting up snack and cleaning up after an activity.

Activities:

Tell "The Brownie Story" [Brownie Handbook Page 18] while the girls eat snack. Because the story is long and the girls' attention spans are short, try reading the story before the meeting and paraphrasing the story in your own words.

Snack Time:

Generally by the time meetings run after school girls are hungry. It's a good idea to share snack duties throughout the Girl Scout year between girls. Have girls rotate who brings a healthy light snack at each meeting. This can be a job on the kaper chart [Kaper resource included].

Have the girls act out the Brownie Story. Teach the Girl Scout slogan and "Do a good turn daily." Relate this to the Brownie Story. Learn the traditional "Brownie Smile Song

Clean-up/Closing:

Girl Scouts leave a space better than they found it. You can make a game out of cleaning up after each meeting by having the girls see how fast it takes them to clean up and keep a running tally of the times. When they have reached a time (after a few meetings) that is steady do something special with them ie. treat for snack, special craft etc.

Have the girls form a circle to end the meeting with a friendship circle [girl handbook p. 19].

Second Meeting

Pre-Meeting Activity: Giggling Gertie

Materials:

- Handkerchief/bandanna

Instructions:

Have the girls form a circle, with one girl standing in the center. The girl in the center laughs and tosses a handkerchief or rag in the air. The group starts to laugh and all the players continue to laugh as long as the handkerchief is in the air. The instant the handkerchief touches the floor, all faces become expressionless. The first person caught smiling or laughing is “it,” and replaces the girl in the center.

Opening: Flag Ceremony Activity

Explain the structure and purpose of a flag ceremony, a traditional part of most Girl Scout events. Then put on your own flag ceremony [Ceremony Resource Included].

Troop Business: Troop Dues

Start a discussion about troop dues. The following questions might be helpful to get the discussion going:

- What are troop dues?
- What will we need money for? (remind them of their activity ideas)
- How much money will we need to do those things?
- How else can we build our troop treasury?
- What is a reasonable amount to collect at each meeting?
- How can the girls earn their dues?

Activities:

Play the game "Partners." Have every girl find a partner. If there are cliques, you may want to pull names from a hat. Then, each pair will talk together for five minutes to find out all they can about each other. Each person introduces her partner by telling the group their partner's name and several interesting things about her partner. Next, from the pre-meeting activity, make a priority list of what the girls would like to do during the year. Have a few ideas of your own to start the girls' thinking. Go over the list with the girls to decide how much each activity will cost and the time needed to complete the activity. Lastly, in small groups, have the girls make colorful posters of what the Promise means to them.

Snack Time:

While the girls eat snack, explain the concept of badges and ask the girls which ones interest them. If possible, prepare a list of five to ten badges that are diverse yet feasible for your troop to complete. Aim to finish one or two badges in the next two months, based on their input.

Clean-up/Closing:

Remind the girls that Girl Scouts leave a place better than we found it.

Add the Friendship Squeeze to the Friendship Circle [girl handbook p. 19]. Try the Friendship Squeeze: form a Friendship Circle. Squeeze the hand of the girl next to you and put your right foot into the circle. Everyone is silent as the friendship squeeze passes around the circle. Once everyone has felt the squeeze, say "Goodnight, Girl Scouts" and turn out of the circle.

Third Meeting

Pre-Meeting Activity:

Materials:

- Ribbon—cut into lengths of about 2 –3 feet
- Popsicle sticks—14 for each girl
- Scissors
- Glue sticks
- Card stock with Girl Scout Law printed on it (see attached template), one set for each girl

Instructions:

- As the girls arrive, give them the required materials
- Have the girls cut out the card stock strips
- Glue one strip to each of the popsicle sticks
- Lay down the ribbon in an upside down U shape (demonstrate this to make it clear)
- In order from top to bottom, glue the popsicle sticks to the ribbon.
- Allow the glue to dry
- The girls can take them home and hang them on a door so they can see them

Opening: Girl Scout Songs

Learn one or two traditional Girl Scout songs together, such as “Girl Scouts Together” or “G for Generosity,” [Junior Song Resource Included]

Troop Business:

- Take attendance.
- Have the girls sign up for jobs on the Kaper chart.
- Collect any necessary forms.
- Go over the rededication/investiture ceremony and what it is.

Check-In Questions:

Are the girls learning the names of the other troop members?

Are the girls getting along well?

Third Meeting

Activities:

Talk to the girls more in depth that you will be having an Investiture and Rededication Ceremony [Ceremony Resource Included] next week where new girls will receive their Brownie pin and other girls will rededicate themselves to the Promise and Law. Discuss the ceremony, which will include a flag ceremony, reciting the Promise and Law, and one or two songs. Teach the Girl Scout handshake [Brownie Handbook Page 2]. Plan a Kaper chart for the ceremony. Then, split the girls into two groups. One group will make personal invitations for their families while the other group decorates posters of the Promise and Law. Then the groups swap.

Snack Time:

While the girls eat snack, introduce them to/remind them of the Girl Scout Law [Brownie Handbook Page 2]. Ask them what they think each part of the law means and how they can apply it to their lives.

GIRL SCOUT LAW

I will do my best to be:

Honest & Fair
Friendly & Helpful
CONSIDERATE & CARING
 COURAGEOUS & STRONG
responsible for what I say and do respect myself and others
RESPECT AUTHORITY
Use resources wisely
make the world a better place
& be a sister to every Girl Scout.

Clean-up/Closing:

Remind the girls that Girl Scouts leave a place better than we found it.

Continue with the Friendship Circle [girl handbook p. 19]. Encourage girls to think of a new closing/ how they'd like to say goodbye that they would like to do at the next meeting.

Fourth Meeting

Pre-Meeting Activity:

Materials:

- Markers
- Paper

Instructions:

- Have the girls break into groups to decide on what type of decorations they'd like to have at their Investiture and Rededication Ceremony
- Once they'd talked about it in groups have each group present their ideas to the rest of the troop
- After each group has gone have the troop vote on the decorations they want to have

Opening: Flag Ceremony

Put on your own flag ceremony to open the meeting [Ceremony Resource Included].

Fourth Meeting

Troop Business: Investiture and Rededication Ceremony

1. Collect dues
2. Planning the Investiture and Rededication Ceremony

Explain that you'll use this meeting to get the girls ready for their investiture/rededication ceremony. Help everyone understand that every idea is a good idea.

«At this point it might be a great opportunity to see if the girls would like to work in smaller groups or patrols to plan different parts of the ceremony and to be responsible for snack or entertainment or decorations. Let the girls decide what they think they might be ready for. Make sure they have an adult for support but instruct the adult to let the girls lead discussions and make the decisions with just a bit of advice and support. Refer to meeting six for ideas on how to divide the troop into smaller groups.

- Choose songs, games, or other activities to use at the ceremony.
- Choose a snack to serve. Simple refreshments are best. Teach the girls that they will serve their guests before they serve themselves.
- Talk about decorations
- Explain what could happen at the ceremony and encourage the girls to do the planning with a bit of guidance and help:

Opening

Song

Investiture and Rededication:

New Juniors will receive their Brownie Girl Scout pin; Girl Scout handshake

Returning Brownie's will receive their rededication patch (optional) ; Girl Scout handshake

Refreshments

Clean-up

Closing Activity; invite guests to join in Practice the ceremony

Do a quick "dry run " so that everyone is familiar with their roles and how the ceremony will work. Practice the Girl Scout handshake.

Fourth Meeting

Activities: Decorations

Make the decorations for the investiture/rededication ceremony.
Be sure to bring appropriate materials for the girls to use.

Snack Time:

Ask the girls what Girl Scouts mean to them. Be prepared to share your answer with them as well.

Clean-up/Closing:

Remind the girls that Girl Scouts leave a place better than we found it.
In closing, sing one or two favorite songs from the last meeting. Or learn a new song, like “Princess Pat,” a fun and interactive song.

Fifth Meeting

Pre-Meeting Activity: Having the Ceremony

As the girls arrive they can decorate the meeting space with the decorations they made. They can also tidy up the area and set up tables and chairs as needed to prepare the meeting space for the ceremony. They can also seat their guests and welcome everyone to the ceremony.

Opening

The girls do the opening and flag ceremony they decided on.

SONGS/PRESENTATIONS/SKITS

The girls present the program they decided on.

PARTY
LIKE A GIRL

INVESTITURE/REDEDICATION

Leader explains to the guests that the girls have been rededicating themselves to the Girl Scouts and practicing the Promise and Law. If the girls would like they can recite them here.

New members receive their Girl Scout Pin and returning girls can receive a rededication patch. (optional)

REFRESHMENTS

The girls serve their guests the refreshments they decided on.

Clean-up/Closing:

Remind the girls that Girl Scouts leave a place better than we found it.

The girls invite their guests to join them in a Friendship Circle or the closing they decided on.

Sixth Meeting

Pre-Meeting Activity: Choosing a Girl Scout Brownie Leadership Journey

Girl Scout Journey Awards coloring sheets (attached)

- Brown construction paper
- Crayons/markers/colored pencils/scissors/glue sticks

As the girls arrive have them each make a paper sash from the brown construction paper by cutting the paper diagonally. Next have them begin coloring the Journey Awards on the coloring sheets (attached). You might have pictures of the awards out so they can see them. When they are finished coloring the awards they can cut them out and paste them to the paper sash.

Opening

Hold the usual flag ceremony or ask the girls to come up with their own version. Don't forget to include the Girl Scout Promise after the Pledge of Allegiance.

Troop Business:

1. Collect dues using the method the girls decided on .
2. Break the troop into three smaller groups (patrols).

Give each small group the information on a different journey. Let them know that they will be putting together a campaign to promote their Journey and persuade the others in the troop to choose their Journey. Give them copies of the coloring pages for their Journey Leadership Awards and markers/colored pencils/crayons. These can be added to their presentation to the entire troop if they'd like.

The girls choose a leader who will keep everyone on task, and get started discussing the journey they have and coming up with a presentation they will make to the entire troop to promote their Journey.

Possible ways to create small groups (patrols):

- As girls arrive give each one of three colored stickers. Ask them to put the colored sticker on their left shoulder. When everyone has arrived have the girls with the same colors group together.
- As the girls arrive give them each one of three pieces of colored yarn or ribbon. Ask them to tie the yarn/ribbon around their right ankle. When everyone has arrived have the girls with the same colors group together.
- Prepare a bowl with small pieces of paper with the numbers 1—3 written on them. Make sure to have the same amount of numbers as there are girls. After all the girls have arrived have each one dip their hand in the bowl and grab a number. When all the numbers have been taken have the girls group together by number.

- MAKING THE CHOICE!

Once all of the patrols have made their presentations to the troop it's now time for the girls to choose the Journey they would like to take. This can be a simple vote (show of hands); after all there will be time to do another Journey later on in the year or the next year.

Sixth Meeting

Activities:

Look over the badges offered in the girl handbook and have the girls choose the ones they want to complete or work on this year. After they have chosen their badges have them break into groups of 2-3 and with in those groups talk about what each of them choose. Compile a list of their choices and vote as a group on which ones they want to do.

Create your own badge/fun patch. Have each girl come up with and design a badge/fun patch they would earn if they got to do anything they wanted.

Snack Time:

Ask the girls what they would like to do at future meetings for the next few months.

Clean-up/Closing:

Remind the girls that Girl Scouts leave a place better than we found it.

In closing, sing one or two favorite songs from the last meeting. Or learn a new song, like "Princess Pat," a fun and interactive song and friendship circle.

Flag Ceremony

A flag ceremony honors the American flag as the symbol of our country and all the hopes, dreams, and people it represents. If your group includes girls from other countries, invite them to honor their flags too, and together conduct an international flag ceremony. Flag ceremonies may be used for:

- Opening or closing meetings
- Opening or closing special events
- Beginning or closing a day
- Honoring a special occasion or special person
- Retiring a worn flag

Flag ceremonies may take place in meeting rooms, outdoor settings, large auditoriums, onstage, or even on horseback. The American flag is carried by a color guard for protection during a flag ceremony. All flag ceremonies share one thing—respect for the flag.

Flag Ceremony Guidelines

Keep it simple. Emphasis needs to be on respect for the flag rather than on the commands or techniques. Adults can ask girls these questions when planning:

- Who will carry the flag?
- Who will the color guards be?
- Who will give the directions for the ceremony?
- What song will you sing? Who will sound the pitch and start the song?
- Will a poem or quotation be included? Who will say or read it?
- After the Pledge of Allegiance, will the Girl Scout Promise and Law be said?
- What order will the ceremony follow?
- When will the group practice?

Where will the flags be placed at the end of the ceremony?

Terms used in a Flag Ceremony

The color bearer (or flag bearer) is the person who carries the flag. There is one color bearer for each flag used in the ceremony.

The color guard is a team that guards the flags. Any even number of guards may be used, but usually four or six girls are sufficient.

The Girl Scout in charge (or caller) is a designated Girl Scout who announces or calls each part of the ceremony.

Possible Commands for a Flag Ceremony

"Girl Scouts, attention." Used to announce that the flag ceremony is to begin.

"Color guard, advance." Signals the color guard to advance with the flags or advance to pick up the flags.

"Color guard, post the colors." Directs the color guard to place the flag in flag standards or to attach the grommets to a flag pole rope.

"Color guard, honor your flag." Signals the color guard to salute the American flag.

"Please join us in saying the Pledge of Allegiance." Followed by an appropriate song, quotation, or poem, if so desired.

"Color guard, retire the colors." Prompts the color guard to remove the flag from standards or to lower the flag, detach it from the rope, and fold it prior to being dismissed.

"Color guard, dismissed." Prompts the color guard to leave in formation, with or without the flag.

"Girl Scouts, dismissed." Indicates girls may leave in formation or be at ease where they have been standing.

Investiture/Rededication Ceremony

An investiture is a ceremony to welcome new girls or adults into Girl Scouting. It is a very meaningful step in the life of each person as she becomes active in Girl Scouts for the first time.

A rededication is a ceremony for girls and adults who have already been invested. It is a time for them to reaffirm their belief in the Girl Scout Promise and Law and to reflect upon the meaning of Girl Scouting in their lives. Usually it is held at the beginning of each Girl Scout year (October), or shortly after the troop forms.

Tips for holding a ceremony

- Devote sufficient time to planning the ceremony. Good ceremonies have a clear purpose and enrich the meaning and mood of the ceremony.
- Use Journey adult guides and The Girl's Guide to Girl Scouting to help girls plan their ceremonies.
- Take safety precautions when using candles or fires, or when the girls construct bridges or platforms. Refer to Volunteer Essentials and the Safety Activity Checkpoints (available through your council) for specific advice.
- Add personal elements to traditional ceremonies. Use favorite poems, songs, stories, and sayings, or have the girls write something new.
- Consider the role of colors and symbols that the girls might use in their ceremony.
- Observe flag etiquette when the girls hold flag ceremonies.

Additional Resources

Troop Government

Every grade level of Girl Scouting uses some form of troop government.

Troop government is a way for girls to learn responsibility, independence and how to become leaders!

Troop government is designed to be progressive, building on the skills learned in previous years.

When the girls reach Girl Scout Juniors and on through Girl Scout Ambassadors, the girls take on more responsibility of running the troop and thus should decide which form of troop government they will use.

Girl Scout Brownie Ring

The Girl Scout Brownie Ring is very similar to the Girl Scout Daisy Circle but expands to the abilities of these now somewhat “older” girls. Girls can now begin to lead discussions and “brainstorm” ideas. A Ring “Leader” may be designated to lead discussions, but make sure that all girls are given this leadership opportunity. When someone wishes to speak, a special “Talking Signal” is used in the Girl Scout Brownie Ring. This is indicated by the girl placing the two fingers of her right hand on the floor (or table, if you are seated at a table instead of the floor). The Girl Scout Brownie Ring is a good way to make all of the major decisions in your troop from how to spend cookie profits to which Badge to work on next.

Town Meeting (Brownie and above)

In a Town Meeting, the entire troop makes its decisions together. A Moderator is generally needed to lead group discussions. Officers such as Secretary and Treasurer may be elected if the troop feels that there is a need. This generally only works well in small groups but can work in large groups if the girls can stay on task.

Kaper Chart

Dividing Responsibilities & Opportunities

A Kaper is a job or chore that must be done. In Girl Scouting, a Kaper Chart is prepared which indicates all the jobs available and who is responsible for each one. In other words, a Kaper Chart is a way of dividing the jobs so that each girl has a part.

To make a Kaper Chart, first decide:

1. Which kapers should be divided
2. Whether the kapers should be handled by groups or individuals
3. If groups, group size
4. What type or style to use
5. How to rotate the girls

Keep in mind that kaper groups allow leaders to mix the girls in different ways. Typically, groups would stay together for a few times and then are mixed up again. Sometimes, however, girls are rotated more often to give them an opportunity to meet different girls. Sometimes, groups use a combination of Kaper Charts for different functions: one for groups, splitting major jobs, one for flag ceremony job etc..

Kapers for Individuals

Choose the kapers that work for your troop, perhaps combine some

Opening Kapers: Promise leader, Law leader, flag holder, flag ceremony caller, Color guards, Good Deed Roll Call, Bridge of Silence (2) -These girls make a bridge prior to the flag ceremony and everyone files through underneath, when the girl passes under she stops talking.

Business Kapers: Secretary-attendance, treasurer—dues

Misc. Kapers: Line leader— hand out craft supplies, Game Girl— chooses a game, Song Singer— chooses a song, Share Bear— gets to tell a story on the topic of their choice, Historian— takes 3-4 photos at each meeting, Floater— fill in in case someone is absent, Free— no job this time

Snacks Kapers: Bring/pass Snack, bring/pass drinks, table wipers, lead grace

Clean Up Kapers: Push in chairs, or stack them Queen of Clean-cleans up after snack, Kaper Keeper moves kaper assignments at the end of the meeting

Closing Kapers: Friendship Fairy-starts the friendship squeeze

Kapers for Groups

You probably wouldn't have all these jobs—choose the ones that work for your troop size and needs Opening: Choose and lead the opening. Will it be a flag ceremony, a favorite game or song, the Promise?

Business Assistants: Pass out and collect papers, take attendance, collect dues

Passers: Pass out any supplies during the meeting

Hostesses: Prepare and pass out snack, lead grace (optional)

Clean Up: Everyone cleans, but these girls make sure it gets done

Closing: Choose and lead the closing. Will it be a song, talking about living the Promise, Friendship Circle?

Out: Large troops might need to rotate groups out

Make New Friends

Make new friends but keep the old;
One is silver and the other gold;
A circles round it has no end;
That's how long I want to be your friend

Brownie Smile

I've got something in my pocket
It belongs across my face
I keep it very close to me in the most convenient place
I bet you wouldn't guess it if you guessed a long long while
So I'll take it out and put it on
It's a great big Brownie SMILE

'G' Is For Generosity

She wears a G for generosity.
She wears an I for interest, too.
She wears an R for real sportsmanship.
She wears an L for loyalty, for loyalty!
She wears an S for her sincerity.
She wears a C for courtesy.
She wears and O-U-T for outdoor life, outdoor life.
And that Girl Scout is Me!
